TO ADVERTISERS.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

BRIEFS.—Attention is called to the new advertisement of Myron Buck, Insurance Agency, which appears in our columns to-day. Those wishing insurance will do well to give him a call.

The New Orleans Minstrels, who give entertainments at Academy Hall on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week, are highly spoken of by the Montreal press. They will, without doubt, have crowded houses in St. Albans.

In the person of Mr. David Crawford, Kingman Block, Main Street, St. Albans has as good a look-binder, we venture to assert, as there is in the State of Vermont. He does no "shoddy" work, as all will attest who have entrusted to him books to bind. We have seen some splendid specimens of binding from his bindery, which would have been a credit to the best binders of our large cities.

Hon. W. C. Smith has our thanks for numerous Public Documents.

Messrs Kittredge and Fuller keep a good stock of furniture, such as chairs, beds, dining, centre and extension tables, sofas, bureaus, chairs, what-nots &c., besides a good assortment of wallpaper and border. They are wide-awake, enterprising young men and deserve a large patronage from the people of St. Albans and Franklin County.

Mr. J. Russell Armington is special agent of the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, Washington, D. C., for Addison, Chittenden, Grand Isle, Franklin, Lamoille, and Washington Counties.

Mr. E. F. Perkins and family sail for California in the steamer Alaska, which leaves New York on the 9th of next month. It will be seen by an advertisement in another place that Mr Perkins will sell his Household property at auction on the 21st inst.

The second grand hop of the series of dances given by the Entre Nous Club comes off to-morrow evening at Academy Hall.

ESSEX ACADEMY.—We have received the sixth annual catalogue of Essex Academy for the year ending November 1868, from which we should judge that the school is in a flourishing condition. The Board of Instruction consists of Asa Sanderson, A. M., Principal; Oscar Atwood, A. M., Teacher of Latin and Greek; Miss Fanny A. Haskell, Preceptress, Winter and Spring term; Miss Lizzie M. Benedict, Preceptress; Miss Julia A. Church, Teacher of vocal and instrumental music; J. W. Swasey, Teacher of Penmanship.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—"Wheeler's Block" in Burlington, just east of the American House, has been sold to R. E. Ray, of Burlington, and his brother C. C. Ray, of Ottawa, Canada, for $15,000.

The lot fronts 60 feet on Main Street, and runs back 200 feet having several tenement houses on it included in the sale.

MR. CUSHING'S ADDRESS.—The address of the Rev. H. P. Cushing, which comes off in connection with the Good Templars' Convention to-morrow, will be delivered in the Methodist Church, commencing at 7 o'clock, p. m. The business meetings, we are requested to say, will all be held in the Good Templars' Hall, Barnes' Block.

Legislature of Vermont—1868.

WEDNESDAY NOV. 11.

Bills Passed.—H. 172, the Berkshire, Vt., Phoenix Spring, Co.
H. 184, the Bellows Falls Building Association.
H. 21, relating to the fees of the town grand jurors.

AFTERNOON.

Joint Resolutions.—Providing for a hydrographic survey of the State. The Senate concurred in the substitute of the House therefor.
Third Reading Ordered, S. 81, authorizing certain towns to aid in construction of Montpelier and White River Railroad amended so as to limit it to the town of Barre.

HOUSE.

Bills Introduced and Referred.—All highway taxes that are not collected by the highway surveyors, shall be added to the town tax of the person neglecting to pay, and shall be collected and paid into the town treasury; the monies thus collected to be used for the building of bridges and repairing of highways only.

Reports.—From committee on joint resolution for final adjournment; recommending final adjournment on Friday the 20th instant; agreed to.

Unfinished Business.—H. 6, to authorize the Bennington and Rutland railroad to extend its road to West Rutland was taken up and Mr. Park, of Bennington resumed his remarks.

He then compared the business of the different owners of quarries at West Rutland, and, from statistics which he read, showed that those owners which desire, and petition for this road, produce more marble than all other quarries combined, and are more interested, financially, in having the Bennington and Rutland Railroad extended against such extension, and that although the latter are more in numbers, the former represent a much larger interest and their request entitled to full as much consideration from the Legislature. To show to the House that the grievances now complained of were new or drummed-up affair, he read a remonstrance made several years ago by Mr. Baxter, one of the largest owners in the marble quarries, to the managers of the Rensselaer and Saratoga complaining of the excessive charges then made for freight, and stated at length that no change had been made to give the marble dealers any relief from the grievances then complained of. The tariffs of freight established by the Rensselaer and Saratoga road are excessively high and are kept so in violation of express contracts. He stigmatized in strong terms the action of the Rensselaer and Saratoga road in playing what he called "sharp tricks" upon one of the largest and most important interests of the State of Vermont.

He then read several letters written by Mr. Baxter to the officers of the Rensselaer and Saratoga, asking them to relieve him in some way from the excessive burdens they were forcing upon him—the road having had the use of cars belonging to him without any allowance, which was made to other dealers, and then offering but a small proportion to their real value for said cars when asked to purchase, and which the owner was compelled to accept. He then referred at length to the fact that a discrimination was made by the managers of the Rensselaer and Saratoga road against Mr. Baxter, charging him a higher tariff of rates than they did the other marble dealers, and that those parties who were remonstrating against this application were the very ones who were favored by the managers of the road, as against Mr. Baxter, who quarried more marble than all the remonstrants combined—a discrimination of which he knew not until it came out on the examination before the committee. He instanced Mr. Sheldon, who, while his marble is billed from West Rutland to Rutland, at $1.20 per ton, pays only 50 cents per ton, while Mr. Baxter's marble is billed at the same rate—$1.20—and he has to pay it in full, without any rebate! giving Mr. Sheldon an advance of 70 cents per ton over Mr. Baxter. He referred to offers that had been made to Mr. Baxter, which no honorable man could accept, and stigmatized them as "sharp," and a sample of the "railroad morals" of the Rensselaer and Saratoga road.

Mr. Park then analyzed the statements made by the marble quarry owners—remonstrants against the extension of the Bennington and Rutland road, and the positions occupied by these firms in relation to the transportation of freight,—that Mr. Sheldon, one of the firm who signs it first, has a carte blanche to transport freight at any price he chose; that Mr. Clement, the principal of the firm who were second signers, was a signer to the petition for the extension, and that that signature was placed on the paper by the junior member of the firm, signing the firm name; that the Manhattan Marble Company signed the remonstrance "by C. M. Willard, managing director; while Mr. Ripley, who was one of the largest owners of stock in that company, was a petitioner for the extension now asked for; and proceeded to show how the signatures to that remonstrance had been obtained by the Rensselaer and Saratoga Railroad Company, who were the real opponents to the extension of the Bennington and Rutland road to West Rutland. Without concluding his remarks.

On motion of Mr. Abell of West Haven, adjourned.

HOUSE.

AFTERNOON.

H. 6, authorizing the Bennington and Rutland Railroad company to extend its railroad to West Rutland, was again taken up, when Park concluded his remarks.

THE AMERICAN COOKING STOVE.—Having been so eminently successful at the New York State Fairs for the past six years' having been brought in competition with all the best stoves in the country, and having each and every year taken the first premium, and some years two, and having gained a world-wide reputation, and a record of which any one may be justly proud, we would now announce for the consolation of those who have so signally and repeatedly failed in competing with it, and have been so sorely chagrined at their numerous and repeated defeats, that this stove is not entered at this fair for a premium, as premiums have ceased to be of any account; but it is entered only for exhibition, that its thousands of friends and admirers may have the opportunity of examining its various improvements.

For Sale by D. M. Walker, St. Albans, Vt.

WHAT MAKES YOUR HAIR SO BEAUTIFUL? MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle). Price One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

If Samson's strength actually lay in the length and abundance of his hair, a liberal use of the famous "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" ought to impart many times the strength of that doughty warrior, for there is no limit. It will not reach it if not properly applied. —N. H. Patriot. d&w.

Life has few charms for the Dyspeptic, which is not to be wondered at when we take into the account the amount of bodily and mental suffering that this distressing malady generates. The Peruvian Syrup (a proteoide of Iron) has cured thousands who were suffering from this disease. W.

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil is sold by most of our Druggists and Merchants, and has become a standard article in market. This position it has won by its merit. It is clean to use. It cures pain where it is used faithfully, and we intend always to keep it in the house to use. Try it. d&w.

NEW YORK, October 13, 1867.

DEAR SIR:—It is with much pleasure that I say to you that I consider the Plantation Bitters of untold value. In the fall of 1867 I was taken with Chills and Fever, with the most severe pains in my chest and head. It was with great difficulty that I could breathe. My lungs were greatly distressed, and there was a pain in my right side. I called a Doctor, who attended me all winter without the least benefit. About the first of August I commenced using your Plantation Bitters—a wine-glass full three times a day—and have used it most of the time since, and I am now well and strong, able to do all my own work and the care of a large family. Yours, &c.
